

Taking Action

If you are one of a small minority of people who do not share these values and are deemed to have behaved in an inappropriate manner, bringing the Club into disrepute, then we are READY to take action.

Penalties may include:

- Limited bans, indefinite bans and life bans depending on the seriousness of the offence
- Loss of your season ticket without compensation
- Arrest in cases of extreme behaviour
- Bans or warnings to supporters' clubs as well as individuals

As a True Blue - Ready and Proud - we know you'll continue to work with us to put

PRIDE OVER PREJUDICE

Pride. It's what being a Rangers fan is all about. It's history, tradition and passion. And it's about holding our heads high as one of the leading clubs in world football.

It's also about creating an atmosphere where everyone can feel respected, comfortable and safe when they come to Ibrox, and when they meet us away from home. That includes people of all racial and religious backgrounds.

We know the vast majority of supporters share Rangers values. Like you, they want to see an end to the inappropriate behaviour of a small minority.

This Guide tells you what Rangers stand for and what we expect from you, our loyal supporters and ambassadors. Without prejudice, and the unacceptable behaviour it sometimes creates, football will be a better experience for everyone. And that's something we'll all be able to take pride in.

The Official Club Motto - READY

The vast majority of people who follow Rangers, both at home in Glasgow and throughout the world, share our commitment to tolerance and understanding and are opposed to aggressive and inappropriate behaviour. These are True Blues, supporters who are proud of the Club - and who we, as a Club, are proud to have as fans. True Blue supporters are....

READY to welcome players, officials and fans of all teams to Ibrox, regardless of race, religious background or country of origin.

READY to show that same respect and courtesy to the general public in the street, on public transport and in the community at large when travelling to home and away games whether in Scotland or abroad.

READY to bring his or her family along to games, passing the proud traditions of the Club on to the next generation of loyal fans.

READY to oppose bigotry, racism and inappropriate behaviour arising from all forms of prejudice.

READY to reject emblems of an offensive, racist or paramilitary nature, whether on flags, banners or clothing.

READY to sing traditional songs which glorify the history of the Club, rejecting obscene or bigoted words which cause offence.
